

MACCAUVLEI

Have you got what it takes to go all the way?

The up and down fortunes of world class sports teams show only one constant – to stay and play in the top leagues requires ongoing training and strategising, never taking your eye off the ball. The same is true of business. Those companies that consistently perform at a high level invest in ongoing professional development, to keep their team motivated and fit to take on whatever the competition can throw at them.

Hit all your training goals for 2010 with Maccauvlei Learning Academy

‘...it’s remarkable how many businesses cut training and development in a downturn. The best never do.’

Geoff Colvin: ‘How to Manage Your Business in a Recession’

Keep your company team in winning form with Maccauvlei Learning Academy, the business training specialists. Our training and development specialises in five major areas which include:

- Supervisory Training
- OD ETDP (Trainer Development)
- Management and Leadership Development
- Human Resource Management Development
- Interpersonal skills (Life Skills)

Plan your training needs around the most important 2010 matches
